Please note :—

1. Whether the Indian Evidence Act was reprinted recently for Nagpur with the amendment worked out therein. The files regarding Regulation of 1800 & 1801 may throw light on the point.

2. Whether the Opium Act & the Methylated Spirit Act have been included in the Excise Manual now under revision. The stage in which the printing of the copies of the Manual may also be ascertained if possible.

3. Whether the Prisons Act is printed in Vol II of the Nagpur Jail Manual

2. Both the Acts are reported to have been included in the new manual the first vol is almost completed.

3. Yes (vide pages 14 to 15 of the manual

16/1

4) It is also ascertained that the matter of the Excise Manual (in the Press is still in Each & has not yet been distributed Since the Opium Act & the methylated spirits Act are said to be included there, it may be convenient to get a few more copies printed

5) draft is submitted for approval or other orders after the issue of the (other information called for in para 1 will be submitted

The same holds good in the case of the Prisons Act also, though it is included in Vol II of the Jail Manual. The inclusion of these Acts in the respective departmental manuals does not perhaps dispense with the necessity to print copies of each separately for sale and a draft to the Govt Press forwarding copies of the Acts for being reprinted will, if approved be put up

(7) With reference to para 16 supra it is submitted that from para 1 of the introduction to Vol I of the Code it appears there was no intention to exclude I.P.C from the Code. A further revision was contemplated (vide flag Z). But this step was not taken as the work involved great care and labour (vide flag Y page) and the remarks of the Hon Councillor Mr. C. Srinivasa Iyengar at Page 44 of Legis 11-03 herewith put up.)

(8) As regards the Indian Evidence Act there was no intention to exclude; on the other hand, from the introduction to Vol I it is clear that this & I.P.C. were reserved for revision

(9) Where mention was in Vol I means the preparation of the I.P.C & the I.E.A. in the form pointed out at page 67 of Legis file 11-1903 (Cr. This front orders are solicited.
